

CONNECTING WITH NATURE IN THE CITY

There are so many beautiful outdoor spaces in Toronto!
We are so lucky to live in a city that offers so much green space!

Echo Valley Park

1124 Kipling Ave, Etobicoke

Near the northwest corner of Burnhamthorpe Road and Kipling Avenue, opposite the Islington Golf Course. This beautiful park offers a path lined with trees, a creek with various wild life and a big field to fly a kite in!

Humber Bay Butterfly Habitat

Located in Humber Bay Park East this beautiful park truly a unique experience! Constructed in 2002 this park was designed to support migrant butterfly populations, providing a beautiful escape from urban life within the city.

The Brick Works

550 Bayview Ave, Toronto

A stunning outdoor space that offers a wonderful place to explore, learn and experience the beauty of nature. Not only does The Brick Works provide an outdoor space but also provides opportunity to experience art exhibits, a children's nature school and other events.

Toronto 's Ravines and Urban Forests

Jason Ramsay-Brown

A beautifully designed book, including pictures, park names , short descriptions and a map.
